The Torridon launches luxury Highland Welcome package

Scotland's most northerly five-star resort, The Torridon, has launched a luxury Highland Welcome package to start its renowned hospitality and experience the moment guests arrive in the Highlands. The Highland Welcome package enables guests to personalise their arrival and stay in a place like no other, The Torridon Resort, while experiencing the breathtaking landscapes from the moment they arrive.

A personal welcome at Inverness Airport is provided by The Torridon's driver Donald, alongside a hamper full of Torridon goodies, before taking guests on a journey through the mountainous landscape enroute to The Torridon. A life-long highlander, Donald will share fascinating details on Culloden Battlefield, Rogie Falls, Loch Garve, Loch Luichart, Loch a Chroisg, Glen Doherty, Glen Torridon and the Torridon mountains, stopping on the way to take in iconic views of the region.

Two nights' accommodation will be provided in one of The Torridon's Suites or Grand Master rooms with Victorian-era features and splashes of flamboyance, offering stunning views of Loch Torridon and the surrounding mountain range.

Throughout the stay guests will enjoy dinner in the elegant 1887 restaurant, whisky tasting of a bespoke range of the 365 malts in the acclaimed Whisky & Gin Bar and a flavoursome evening meal in Bo & Muc Brasserie. A choice of either a full day activity with The Torridon Outdoors Team or a full day hire of the resort's all-electric Porsche Taycan 4S Cross

Turismo (UK residents only) is also included. Private return transfers from Inverness with a guided journey and a hamper of Scottish comforts with a gift to take home to reminisce on their Torridon Time will ensure the end of the stay is as luxurious as the beginning.

The Highland Welcome package costs from £4,250 for two nights for two people, and includes Suite or Grand Master accommodation, breakfast, dinner both nights and whisky tasting, as well as the choice of full-day activities, guided transfers and a hamper to keep.
